

The BUILDINGS OF IRELAND Charitable Trust

Reflections on Ulster Architecture

A Buildings of Ireland Symposium

When: Saturday, 28 September 2024, 10.00-15.30

Venue: Canada Room, Lanyon Building, Queen's University
Belfast

Cost (including lunch): £40/€45 (Student concession rate: £20/€24)

Book: <https://www.eventbrite.ie/e/reflections-on-ulster-architecture-tickets-964905286687>

The BUILDINGS OF IRELAND Charitable Trust

Reflections on Ulster Architecture

PROGRAMME

10.30 – 11.15 Coffee

11.15 – 11.30 Welcome

Roger Stalley, Chairperson, Buildings of Ireland Charitable Trust, and Keith McAllister, Senior Lecturer, School of Natural and Built Environment, QUB

11.30 – 12.00 Experiencing buildings in advance of knowledge of their origins

Michael McGarry, Professor, School of Natural and Built Environment, QUB

12.00 – 12.30 Getting started on the Buildings of Ireland: North West Ulster

Hugh Dixon, architectural historian and author of An Introduction to Ulster Architecture

12.30 – 13.00 Dublin County & Suburbs

Brendan Grimes, architectural historian and photographer, and Colm O'Brien, architect

13.00 – 14.00 Lunch

14.00 – 14.30 North Connaught

Una Sugrue, conservation architect and author

14.30 – 15.00 North East Ulster

Kevin Mulligan, independent architectural historian and author of the Buildings of Ireland volume South Ulster: Armagh, Cavan and Monaghan

15.00 – 15.30 Belfast

Paul Larmour, architect and architectural historian who has written extensively about Ulster architecture and Belfast

15.30 – 15.45 Conclusion

James Howley, conservation architect and director of Howley Hayes Cooney Architects

15.45 – 16.30 Panel Discussion